Alma Mater

Madison High we all love you,
No matter how far we are;
Standing so high in the realm of light
We'll always fight to preserve our rights
Dear Madison High You're Our Home

There is no other so wonderful,
As our dear Madison High;
So we must always endeavor
To keep others from ever passing us by
Dear Madison High you're our home

All other things might pass from our view
As we grow older in age
Madison High you'll live ever true
'Till life turns its final page on you
Dear Madison High, you're our home.

1970 Dedicatee

Mrs. Virginia O. Stradford

Dedication

"Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works."

With love, affection, and humility in our hearts, we, the senior class of Nineteen Hundred and Seventy, dedicate this edition of "The Archives" to Mrs. Virginia O. Stradford. Her patience, understanding, devotion, and kind words has helped us along the way. An outstanding, woman, a dedicated teacher, an inspirational leader, she has shared with those of us who sought her words of advice and encouragement many precious jewels that will help us to endure and prevail.

We especially appreciate her years of dedicated and unselfish service to our class. She has instilled in us a passion for truth, knowledge, and an attitude to grapple with the challenge of the unpredictable.

The Senior Class of 1970

Foreword

"LET SUCCESS BE OUR GOAL"

"Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footsteps on the sands of time; -
Footsteps, that perhaps another,
Sailing o'er life's solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, shall take, heart again."

Those words taken from Longfellow's poem "A Psalm Of Life" is the creed of success. In history the lives of great men inspire us to conquer the trials of life and catch the winds of destiny, to put meaning in life, because life without meaning is in vain.

Day by day men struggle to fulfill their dreams. Dreams built upon human tears, suffering, and hope. Everyone wants success but sometimes, we are not willing to pay the price. Some men pay with their lives; but they have not died in vain. Their works still live within the hearts of men and their generations.

We are a generation faced with opportunities. Let the theme of this book echo throughout the halls of time. And in the final analysis someone will remember the words:

"LET SUCCESS BE OUR GOAL"

This pictorial history of the 1969-70 school year will bring back fond memories for all our students and staff as we recall incidents during the year. Keep it - protect it - for it will be priceless in the future.

March, 1970

Dear Students,

We the hard working members of the 1970 Archives have been faced with many problems in an effort to produce a year book that you would not only enjoy but appreciate. You as students will never know the rewards which we have received in an effort to make this book something in which each student of James Madison could be proud.

Throughout the book we have revealed true Trojan spirit and determination. We hope that the book will reflect this feeling as you turn the pages.

We would like to pay special thanks to Mrs. M. D. Manning, Mr. A. L. Mills, Mrs. A. M. Moore and student body.

May you treasure this book always.

From All of Us,

The 1970 Archives Staff
